

Wake Up: You Are A Woman!

Cassandra (DD) Hardy

What's wrong with you?
You are a woman, for Christ's sake!
When are you going to act like one?
We are amazing and we can do it all!
Marriage, motherhood, make the bed, make the money and make love,
We were specifically designed for such things—didn't you know?
Why do you think God took one of man's ribs to make woman?
Because He knew that our many jobs would require the strength of a man in addition to the strength he gave us,
So get up and do something already!

What? You got fired—get another job.
Your husband can do what—until what?
Get off your butt and help your husband do it before you lose him like you lost your job!
Anything worth having takes hard work—husbands included—and like
I said, we were specifically designed for such things.
So stop making excuses and stop wasting time because time stands still for no one and it's time for you to be a woman!
