

ARTS FESTIVAL

TCC professor, students win at show

Dianne Hottenstein, a ceramics artist and professor at Tidewater Community College's Visual Arts Center in Olde Towne, won third-place overall for her ceramics at the recent Stockley Gardens Arts Festival.

Dianne Hottenstein

TCC art and photography students Sonya Paclob, second-place winner, and Louis Fisher, third-place recipient, took top spots in the student category.

The bi-annual festival featured more than 150 painters, photographers, printmakers and artists specializing in ceramics, glass and other crafts.

- The Virginian-Pilot