

July 22, 2009

Gov. Kaine heading to Peninsula, Southside today

Gov. Timothy M. Kaine will make appearances in Newport News, Norfolk and Virginia Beach today.

According to the governor's online schedule, Kaine will spend the whole day in Hampton Roads, beginning with the 11 a.m. groundbreaking ceremony for the Tidewater Community College Regional Health Professions Center in Virginia Beach (1700 College Crescent).

At 1:30, Kaine is scheduled to be at the Norfolk International Terminals (7737 Hampton Blvd.) to make an announcement about his Renew Virginia initiative and to tour the Port of Virginia. He will remain in Norfolk for a 4 p.m. visit to the Five Points Farmer's Market (2500 Church Street) to promote buying local produce and the benefits of teaching children the importance of healthy eating habits.

He will finish his day with a 6 p.m. appearance in Newport News for the groundbreaking at the AREVA Newport News LLC facility (4101 Washington Ave.).