

Saturday, October 24th

Chesapeake, VA

STORM CAN'T WITHSTAND CHARIS PREP CHARGE.

The Storm fell to Charis Prep, 97-75, in their second exhibition game on Saturday, October 24th. The Storm came out of the blocks strong in the first half. Going up against a talent laden opponent, the Storm led Charis Prep at halftime 39-38. However, saddle with foul trouble, the Storm could not sustain the moment as the Crimson Tide got rolling. Charis Prep was able to stifle TCC's offense in the second half and left the victors. The Storm finish the exhibition season 1-1. Head coach Edward McInnis is excited about the lessons learned in the preseason and is looking forward to what lay ahead for the team in the regular season.