

Storm Soccer Scores 8, Splits Weekend

The TCC Storm Soccer team played two games this weekend, and despite a loss, still come out of the weekend with a winning record for the season. On Saturday, The Storm suffered a tough defeat to Mary Washington, 0 to 6. They made up for the loss on Sunday by recording their first shut out of the season, with an 8-0 rout of the New River Knights. The team was led in scoring by Brendan Thomas, who had two goals. The other goals were scored by Stephen Hayes, Ben Codjoe, Valentine Aiktty, Logan Huffman, Aaron McCloud, and Daniel Hines. The credit for the shut out will be shared by goalkeepers Steven Rueb and Tom McLean. The team is in the process of finding a new opponent for next weekend, after seeing the planned game cancelled.
