I. Name:
The name of the Governance Committee is the General Education Committee.

II. Purpose:
The purpose of the General Education Committee (GEC) is to improve the quality and relevance of the College's general education curriculum. The GEC considers new courses for inclusion as general education and approved transfer elective courses. The GEC performs periodic reviews of these courses to ensure they are continuing to satisfy required core competencies and transfer suitability. The committee reports to the Vice President for Academic Affairs & Chief Academic Officer.

III. Responsibilities:
Review and recommend any revisions to policies, procedures, plans, or other relevant documents that are germane to the purpose of the General Education Committee; assist in drafting new policy and procedures, if needed.
Implement general education course selection procedures.
Participate in focused discussion(s) regarding general education assessment results with faculty and academic deans each semester.
Determine the committee's role in advancing Guided Pathways.

IV. Membership and Terms of Office:
A. As a governing body of Tidewater Community College, the General Education Committee will dedicate itself to being inclusive of our diverse populations when comprising the membership of the committee. Tidewater Community College is dedicated to cultivating and sustaining a diverse and inclusive environment that embraces all identities, perspectives, expression of ideas, and backgrounds. The entire college community benefits from experiences that foster mutual respect, celebrate differences, and value commonalities.
B. Elected Representation on the GEC will be drawn primarily from college-wide faculty reflecting the eight general education competencies as aggregated below. A Library representative, two academic deans, an at-large adjunct faculty member, and an academic counselor will be elected college-wide by their peers. The Curriculum Committee and the Instruction Committee will appoint one member respectively to serve as a representative on the GEC. The Director of General Education Assessment and Transfer Partnerships will serve on the committee. Where vacancies are identified in general education competency representation, the Committee chair will request that the PAPC solicit further volunteers, these to be taken under consideration by the committee for selection.

C. Each member shall serve a two-year term, with 1/3 overlap from year to year. An additional one year term may be served, if the member desires, by signifying his or her willingness to do so annually after their first term during the membership drive. A total of three years can be served consecutively. If a member should step down from the committee prior to the end of his or her term, a replacement for the same General Education Competency shall be appointed by the Committee Chair to serve out the remainder of the term. At the end of the term, the replacement will be eligible for election to serve a subsequent two-year term. Each member of the committee must be employed by TCC while serving on the Committee.

B. The Chair, in consultation with ex officio members, may call additional meeting as required to be held at a time and a place agreed upon by the membership during a regularly scheduled meeting. The Chair shall notify all members by email of the time set for the extra meeting.
C. A quorum is defined as a simple majority of filled positions and is required for a vote on any action items presented to the Committee.

D. Prior to, or in conjunction with the first meeting in the Fall semester, new Committee members are required to participate in a training workshop on academic policies and procedures relevant to the work of the Committee.

E. The Chair will conduct all meetings according to Robert’s Rules of Order.

VIII. Attendance:

A. Members of the General Education Committee are expected to attend all meetings scheduled to conduct the Committee’s business.

B. If a member misses thirty percent of regularly scheduled meetings within an academic year, he or she may be removed from the Committee. A replacement representing the same General Education competency may be appointed by the Committee Chair to serve out the remainder of the term.

IX. Subcommittees:

The Chair, in consultation with the Director of General Education Assessment & Transfer Partnerships, may appoint ad hoc subcommittees as required to carry out the Committee’s charges.

X. Amendments:

Amendments to these Bylaws must be proposed and lodged at a regularly scheduled meeting and are subject to a vote of the voting membership at the next regularly scheduled meeting for which a quorum is present.
