

CHESAPEAKE CAMPUS

Located on sixty-nine acres off Cedar Road between Great Bridge and Deep Creek, the Chesapeake Campus was established in 1973 when the City of Chesapeake purchased the former Chesapeake College. The George W. Pass building houses academic programs, administration, student services, and the Library. The Marian P. Whitehurst Technology Center, contains classrooms, laboratories, and a conference center. The Regional Automotive Technology Center opened for classes in fall 2008 with nine classrooms, fifteen 20-foot-high bays – one designed for an 18 wheeler – and the latest in instructional equipment. Additionally, a new 60,000 square-foot, state-of-the-art academic building and a new student center opened during the 2013-14 academic year.
